

Healthcare News

- HMRC treatment of travel and subsistence expenses for medical consultants In a review of travel and business expenses for medical consultants, HM Revenue & Customs (HMRC) is looking to apply certain principles when deciding what constitutes an acceptable business expense for tax purposes. 30 April 2010
- Tax amnesty for medical professionals A partial amnesty for doctors and dentists who have failed to declare income to HM Revenue & Customs (HMRC) has been launched in the opening salvo of a new campaign designed to flush out tax evasion by professionals. 12 January 2010

Download all items as PDF

© 2012 Kingston Smith LLP: Accountants in London (City and West End), Hayes, Redhill, Romford and St Albans

Follow us on:

