

Charities

Running a not for profit organisation effectively is a challenging task in the current economic climate. The right professional advice can make all the difference, with the combined pressure of raising funds, managing your finances, meeting stakeholder demands and keeping on top of the constantly changing regulatory and legal framework.

Kingston Smith can help you meet all these challenges by delivering a comprehensive range of services specially tailored for the not for profit sector.

About Kingston Smith's charities team

We have a multi-disciplinary, dedicated not for profit team which acts for over 700 charities and not for profit organisations of all types and sizes including:

- Grant giving trusts and foundations
- Arts and culture
- Overseas Aid
- Disability charities
- Religious organisations
- Medical/health
- Education

We can help your organisation develop and achieve its aims and objectives and will provide you with the right advice at the right time. We do this by providing you with a partner who is accessible, who will take the time to understand your organisation and who will lead a dedicated client service team to help you meet your objectives.

How we can help you

We provide a tailored service, offering flexibility and unrivalled excellence within the sector.

Kingston Smith's charities group can help you with:
